

ALICE

CHRISTINA HENRY

Beware the claws that catch, Alice

In a warren of crumbling buildings and desperate people called the Old City, there stands a hospital with cinderblock walls that echo the screams of the poor souls inside. In the hospital, there is a woman. Her hair, once blonde, hangs in tangles down her back. She doesn't remember why she's in such a terrible place, only echoes of a tea party long, long ago: a vision of long ears and blood.

Then, one night, a fire at the hospital gives the woman a chance to escape, tumbling out of the hole that imprisoned her, leaving her free to uncover the truth about what happened to her all those years ago.

Only something else has escaped with her. Something dark. Something powerful. And to find the truth, she will have to track this beast to the very heart of the Old City, where the rabbit waits for his Alice.

A breakout success in the US in 2015, Alice came second in the Goodread Readers Choice awards for Horror and was one of Amazon's Book's of the Year. A dark and deeply satisfying take on Carroll's enduring tale, Alice is a page-turning read that threatens to devour the reader back; so this June discover just how deep the rabbit hole truly goes...

This is the first ever publication for the UK market and is closely followed by the concluding title in the duology Red Queen in July from Titan Books.

CHRISTINA HENRY is the author of the national bestselling Black Wings series (Black Spring, Black Heart, Black City), featuring Agent of Death Madeline Black and her popcorn-loving gargoyle, Beezle. Christina lives in Chicago with her husband and son.
